9th December 1954] [Mr. Speaker]

Thus, the question which party should be called the Opposition Party bristles with difficulties. So, in the Conference of Presiding Officers of the Legislatures in India, we did not take any decision on the matter. In the circumstances, it is better if discretion is given to the Chair to call a collection of members a party or a group.''

* THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM :—'' With regard to the arrangement of the seats of the members belonging to each political party or group in the Assembly in the alphabetical order, I think any principle need not be laid down in the rules. In consultation with the Chief Whip and the other parties, whatever arrangement is necessary may be made. Therefore, this amendment is not necessary.''

The amendment of Sri N. Gopala Menon was, by leave, withdrawn.

Rule 61 was approved.

RULE 62.

MR. SPEAKER :—'' The question is—

'Rule 62 do stand part of the Madras Assembly Rules.' ''

SRI N. GOPALA MENON :—'' I do not move my amendment, Sir.''

Rule 62 was approved.

Rules 63 to 69 were approved.

MR. SPEAKER :—'' We shall take up rule 70 on Saturday. The House will now adjourn and meet again at 11 a.m. tomorrow.''

The House then adjourned.
